Sufficiently Rewarded,

The latest joke at the expense of the French Society for the Protection of Animals is to the following effect: A countryman, armed with an immense club, presents himself before the president of the society, and claims the first prize. He is asked to describe the act

"I saved the life of a wolf," replied

'But where was this wolf?" inquire

"He had just devoured my wife," was the latter; "what had he done to you?"

The president reflects an instant, and then says: "My friend, I am of opinion that you have been sufficiently re warded."

"The Flowery Hat."

"Rustleus," in Goodwill, writes: "A bookseller of my acquaintance was much puzzled the other day by a cus tomer's demand for a work called "The Flowery Hat.' The nearest approach to this title seemed to be owned by Mr

S. R. Crockett's charming story, "The Lilac Sunbonnet, At length it came out that he was inquiring for 'The New Floreat'!"

GROWN

Educational Psychology Course-Other Notes.

One of the features of Dr. Scripure's course in educational psychology during the present year is the series of visits to educational institutions to watch the methods of teaching with reference to the psychological laws involved. The Boardman Training school and the State Normal school had previously een visited. Dr. Scripture and his students have just returned from a valuable trip to New York for the purpose of visiting the Teachers' college, the Horace Mann school and one of the institutions for deaf mutes. J. S. Wheelwright '97 coached the Annapolis crew during the Easter re

THE PETITION FOR JOE WIPPER. The petition for the reinstatement of Joe Wipper, the Yale campus mail carter, which was circulated the evening before the Easter vacation, was later forwarded to the post office department at Washington. The petition was ac-knowledged in the following letter:

Post Office Department, Washington, April 13, 1895 To the Chairman of the Yale News, New

Sir-Your letter, together with a petition for the reinstatement of Joseph Wipper, letter carrier in the New Ha-ven post office, has been received by the orable postmaster general and referred by him to me, these matters com-ng under my jurisdiction. Carrier Wipper has been indefinitely suspended pending an investigation of gross carelessness. The matter is being investigated, and Carrier Wipper shall be dealt with justly as are other carriers in cases of this kind, and an opportunity will be given him to submit any state ments he may have in his own defense

Very respectfully, F. H. JONES, First Assistant Postmaster General. Mr. Wipper has forwarded to Wash ington his statements in regard to his case, accompanying them with an affidavit.

A DELIGHTFUL ENTERTAINMENT. Westville People Enjoy Some of Mrs. Drummond's Recitations-The Entertain ment in Charge of Mrs. Hollis. A delightful entertalnment was given it the Congregational church in Westville last Wednesday evening before a large audience. It was under the management and direction of Mrs. L. B Hollis. The recitations of Mrs. A. M. Drummond were among the most en joyable features of the evening's entertainment. She possesses great power and manifested a thorough grasp of her subject. Her presence is pleasing and her enunciation clear. "The Street Musicians," a pathetic number, delighted her audience. She brought out most artistically the soothing influence of music upon the poor degraded sot, who under its spell, was reminded of his inocent youth and was reclaimed for petter things.

Mrs. Hollis took entire charge of th entertainment and besides that, with her customary fine execution, rendered her solos and other paris in a most greeable and effective manner, greatly lelighting her audience.

The entertainment was one of the ost interesting events that has taken Admission will be fifteen cents and will make a handsome addition to the hurch treasury.
